Teej Celebration

A Report

Women Cell of the college, (Women Warriors) celebrated the festival of Teej with much fanfare in college auditorium on 02.08.2019. On this occasion, various competitions like Henna Application Competition, Rangoli Competition and Cooking Competition were organized. 57 students participated actively in these competitions. Henna Application Competition was the main attraction of the function. Girls applied beautiful henna designs on the hands of their partners. The students also impressed the judges by preparing delicious dishes and by making attractive and aesthetic Rangoli designs. Mrs. Amita Singh was the chief guest of the function. Mrs. Singh informed the audience regarding the importance of Teej festival and said that the festival symbolized the tradition and culture of the country. Dr. Anju Jain, Mrs. Rachna Khanna and Mrs. Kamlesh Kumari acted as judges for various competitions. Dr. Jyoti Sorout conducted the stage efficiently. 125 students attended this event. Ms. Dikshita Anand, Ms. Shruti Verma and Ms. Himani bagged First, Second and Third positions respectively in Henna Application Competition. In Rangoli Competition, Ms. Tanvi and Ms. Vanshika won First Prize; Mr. Shubham and Ms. Sonam won Second Prize and Ms. Anjali won Third Prize. In Cooking Competition, Ms. Nidhi, Ms. Muskan and Ms. Ruche grabbed the first three positions respectively.

Dr. Raj Pal Singh, Principal of the college congratulated all the winners for showcasing their talents. He also praised the efforts of Women Cell in celebrating the festival of Teej with such gaiety.

Tree Plantation Drive

A Report

Women Cell of the College (Women Warriors) with the collaboration of Forest Department, Ambala organized a Tree Plantation Drive in Village Panjokhra on 30.08.2019. Dr. raj pal Singh, Principal of the college motivated the women warriors for this eco-friendly noble cause. Dr. Bharti Vij, Convenor, and Dr. Saroj Bala, Coordinator, Women Cell, G.M.N. College, Ambala Cantt. and Principal, Govt. High School, Panjokhra started off the campaign by planting saplings in the school campus. Then Women Warriors group and school students planted saplings in the school and other places in the village, Panjokhra. Approx. 200 students from school and college took active part in the tree plantation drive. The students gave a message to the public for saving the environment by forming a human tree. Dr. Bharti and Dr. saroj motivated the students and villagers to plant and adopt one tree each and take care of it. On this occasion, Dr. Raj Pal Singh praised the efforts of the Women Cell of the college.

Adult Education Programme Report

Women Cell of the college under the joint aegis of village Shahpur and village Bandi organised an Adult Education Programme on 30.09.2019. In this program, the college students under Women- the Warriors group participated extensively. The members of this group spread awareness among the villagers. They appealed to them to educate themselves and voluntarily promote and spread such programs from their own good so that an ideal society and nation could be established. On this occasion, Women Cell Convener, Dr. Bharti Vij, Co-convener, Dr. Saroj Bala and numerous active students of the college played an important role in making this programme a success. Principal, Dr. Rajpal Singh congratulated the efforts of Women Cell conveners, members and students for organising the programme.
