रैली निकाल दिया बेटी बचाओ बेटी पढ़ाओ का संदेश

अज्ञान, गरीबी और भ्रष्टाचार के कारण ही देश में लिंग भेदभाव का प्रचलन है। इससे समाज में असमानता फैलती है। बेटी बचाओ बेटी पढ़ाओ कार्यक्रम के माध्यम से हम इस समस्या को दूर करने का प्रयास करेंगे।

देश के विकास और प्रगति के लिए हमें अपनी बेटी को शिक्षा देना है। लिंग भेदभाव को खत्म करने के लिए हमें बेटी को सुरक्षित रूप से जन्म देना है।

GENDER CHAMPIONS

Apart from SHE TEAMS and its members, the women cell has a long list of gender champions, a UGC initiative for educational institutions. It is a joint initiative of the Ministry of Women and Child Development and Ministry of Human Resource Development. Schools and colleges play a vital role in gender socialization, whereby youngsters shape their attitudes and transform behaviors. In order to value girls and their rights, it is important to create positive social norms in educational institutions.

According to UGC guidelines, there are 232million individuals aged 15-24 years, who account for 19.15% of the country's population. We need to tap into the goodness and sense of justice of these young boys and girls. We need to engage with these youngsters to challenge and shift gender norms that contribute to gender inequality.

Gender equality is guaranteed by Article 15 of Indian Constitution and Government of India envisages engagement of Gender Champions in all schools and colleges across the country. According to the UGC guidelines, Gender Champions can be both boys and girls above 16 years of age enrolled in educational institutions. Gender champions are envisaged as responsible leaders who will facilitate an enabling environment within their schools and colleges where girls are treated with dignity and respect.

Guidelines for Gender Champions

1. Introduction

Gender socialization of both boys and girls begins early, and it is important to initiate change processes at a young age to shape attitudes and transform behaviors. Schools and colleges play a major role in this regard, because students spend large amounts of time engaged with peers in such settings. Creating positive social norms in educational institutions that value girls and their rights is important to improve the well-being of girls and achieve long-term and sustainable social change.

India is home to around 232 million individuals aged 15-24 years, who account for 19.15% of the country's population. Engaging with these young boys and girls is crucial to help them critically assess notions of masculinity and question prevailing gender inequities. We need to tap into the goodness and sense of justice of these young boys and girls, and give them tools for maintaining those gifts as they encounter people and experiences that are different from their own. We need to engage with these boys and girls to challenge and shift gender norms that contribute to girls and women having less worth, opportunities and decision-making ability than boys and men.

In order to promote gender equality, guaranteed by Article 15 of the Indian Constitution, we need to change the mode of interaction at all levels – home, school, workplace and so on. To increase the outreach for creating an environment that fosters equal treatment, Government of India envisages engagement of Gender Champions in all schools and colleges across the country. Gender Champions can be both boys and girls above 16 years of age enrolled in educational institutions. It is a joint initiative of the Ministry of women and Child Development and Ministry of Human Resource Development.
